Estrella War - Update #1

Tom Vandale was admitted into the order of the White Scarf!

As General, Don Tom led our rapier forces and the Outlands came home with the victory banner!

Friday saw Caer Galen, Caerthe and friends from across the Outlands bearing Sir Douglas' Bowen knot on armbands as they took the fields. Friday night we toasted with many friends throughout camp who shared stories with us. Baron Douglas lives on in our hearts with these precious memories secured.

We are proud to be the Baronesses of Caer Galen and can't wait to hear everyone's favorite moment from the war.

Thank you.
Anne and Matilda

Estrella War - Update #2

Hello Caer Galen!

First of all we need to thank all of the amazing folks who joined us at Estrella. Every Caer Galenite there helped to make the week a memorable one, including: Lana, Konrad, Mirabel, Kjeld, Miguel, Zod, Bree, Jen, Bea, Andrew, Anabel, Tim, Laura, Padraig, Monica, Olivia, Andros, Tim, Mahara, Jeanne-Marie, Finn, Leif, Pavari, Grellan, Bjarki and Narianda. These folks hit the heavy field, rapier field, archery range, photographed, cooked, cleaned, set up, broke down and provided us with a space to call home in foreign lands. We look forward to hearing everyone's stories of valor soon.

Next, thank you to Don Thomas, Lady Mahara, Lady Gillian, Lord Jordan, THLady Cecilia and Lord Scott for their assistance at Candlemas on Saturday. Our arrival, set up and departure were smooth and efficient with your help. It was a joy to see our friends in Dragonsspine and enjoy a wonderful Feast of Pies that were plentiful.

Today we were able to witness the glory that was Queen's Prize. There were nearly 60 entries in so many different categories, it was a sight to see. There was also a Children's portion and 7 young Outlanders were brave enough to show off their talents. The youngest entrant was 5 years old and entered a series of dolls made by her own hand. It was a delight to talk with her and so many other artists who are passionate about their craft. Thank you to THLady Shoshanah and Mistress Maimuna for attending us during court and thank you to Mistress Jeanne-Marie and Master Bjorn for providing safe harbor when the need arose.

We are honored to be your Baronesses.
Thank you.
Anne & Matilda

Herald - THL Shoshanah

February was FABULOUS (yes, doing "jazz hands")

We had a wonderful heraldry day and the outcome was 7 submission going in for names and devices.

There are a couple more to go up next month.

It was so successful that we're planning on making it a quarterly thing.

In Service,
Shoshanah
Ray de Soleil, Pursuviant

Hospitaller- Lady Livia

Good evening,

I have no new news for February. However, I have been talking with a Gentleman regarding a demo in June for the Boy Scouts. I will be discussing part of this at the meeting tonight, but right now it looks like June. I will keep you updated with details and I hope people are interested in interacting with the kids in June. :)

YIS,
Livia

Rapier Marshal - Lady Jehennette

Greetings!

The month of February saw ups and downs of great proportion thanks to war and weather. Practice is still being held at Barn A Boulder County Fairgrounds, Longmont, CO from 6-9PM on Tuesdays.

There were no blade breaks this month. However, we did have one injury. The person injured took a hard shot to the arm and experienced tingling and loss of grip. The fencer was unable to continue fighting for the evening. The fencers involved discussed it among themselves and with marshals (including myself and the northern Outlands deputy marshal). We found that the shot was not intentional, but we did discuss practicing breaking our shots. We all need to work on that so when unexpected lunges come into play or our shots land harder than planned we can relieve some of the force. We also need to remember that we only need a touch, not a stab to be a good shot. We must remember we are here to kill one another, with finesse, not HURT one another with force. :)

The Bleeding Hearts Practice tourney brought out a few more fencers from among old ranks and some new people were able to experience a tournament atmosphere and practice some point control. The tournament went on for quite a while. It presented opportunity for marshal discussion, calling shots, and general rules for participation.

We have had between 6 and 15 fencers this month, with 2-3 new people / returning retirees showing up to fence each week. We hope to continue to see their faces!

Yours In Service,
Jehennette van Mynden

Heraldry Workshop – THL Shoshanah

The Heraldry Workshop was wonderful. We had more than a dozen people and I now have 7 (yes 7) submissions to send in to Castle! Yeah. Thank you to everyone who came and researched, drew, colored, provided research and conflict checked. Thank you to Andrew von Otelingen who joined us from Poland! Based on how well this worked we'll try to do this quarterly. Start thinking of what you'd like to have for a name, device, badge. We have many knowledgeable heralds in the Barony who you can ask for information/advice and then plan to submit in June some time (or earlier - I'll take submissions whenever you have them ready). Again thank you to everyone. I'll try to list our group but if I miss someone my apologies: Their Excellencies of Caer Galen Anne & Matilda, White Stag-Master Carrick, Jamie Roesler & Eric Hodges (our hosts), Mandy Goltz & Scott, Eric & Katelin de Irlande, Conrad von Zollern, James Patrick Warner & Laura Warner-Jennings, Jennifer Abamonte & Tim Davis.

March 2015 Meeting Minutes

Past Business

2014 Midwinter

Briatiz found 10 NMS. Thorunn hasn't submitted the NMS yet, but it was agreed upon that she would send payment for the 10 NMS. Final paperwork is needed to close the event.

Decals – Baroness Matilda

$74 worth of decals was sold in the past month, 37 sold with a $10 donation. 17 were given out at Draca Mor. So far, we are at a $303 profit.

Dwen asked about the heraldry medallions. Matilda hasn't gotten a bid yet. She has made a wax mold for the Golden Nightingale.

Archery – Lord Konrad

Archery budget was presented with a breakdown of supplies needed for repair/replacement of current loaner gear and costs for arrow-making supplies for future workshops. Budget was approved (approximately $610).

New Business

Boy Scout Demo – Lady Livia

A Boy Scout Troop contacted Livia about doing a demo July 18th or 19th. They would like us to present various aspects of medieval life. It would be approximately an hour long. They will have their own activities planned, so ours would most likely be show and tell. It will either be in Frederick or Longmont.

Heavy fighting and swordplay are OK. She will meet with them Tuesday to work out details. They will have outdoor space and/or a pavilion.

Monkey's Quest for the Unicorn Horn – Mistress Signy & Baronin Katherina

This is scheduled for July 11th at the Izaak Walton Clubhouse in Longmont. There will be quests – 3 age groups and each child will be paired with an adult (not necessarily a parent/guardian). Quests will be based on age group and each will be approximately 15 mins long. Each contestant will need to meet with Anna, Simian Prime.

Budget is set at $350 for break-even. Only adults will pay site fee. Volunteers are needed for quests - please contact Katherina if you are interested. There will also be a puppet court (condition of the puppet stage needs to be assessed and a new one may need to be built).

Enduro – Don Tom

Site deposit has been paid; paperwork needs to be submitted for reimbursement. Event is on the Kingdom calendar.

Quests will be based on Alexandre Dumas's tale of Robin Hood. Tom has volunteers, but is also working out the event staff.

Financial Committee – Lady Thorunn

Shoshanah would like to continue on the financial committee. Jehennette has volunteered to be on the committee. All was approved. Currently financial committee is Anne/Matilda, Thorunn, Dwen, Shoshanah, and Jehennette.

Baronial Storage – Lord Konrad

Konrad will be taking inventory of the baronial storage on Monday with the help of Jehennette and Eric. He will probably need some more totes. Cera has some extras. Konrad will figure out how many are needed.

Midwinter 2015 – Master Massimiliano

Event form was submitted and on the Kingdom Calendar. Cera has a verbal contract with the site.

Anna will be holding clothing workshops. Jeanne-Marie will also help and is looking into shoe-making workshop. Other classes are in the works. Pvari and Leif have begun working on a sample menu that is period and delicious.

Anabel has volunteered and Tim will help with the site coordination. A decorating committee is planned.

Bows, Bridles, and Blades – Lady Thorunn and THL Cera

Event will feature archery, equestrian, and rapier. Site will cost $450 for the day. The arena will be used for equestrian and archery on horseback. Forest will be used for archery hunt.
If the weather is bad, we can use the indoor arena, though archery on horseback will not be possible.

For anyone interested in equestrian, the Caerthe Cavalry group is starting up.

August Crown – Baroness Anne

The Kingdom Seneschal at Estrella approached Anne, in regards to Caer Galen hosting August Crown. Signy volunteered to mentor someone interested in running a Kingdom event. Matilda requested that we have a simple feast (and no heavy combat in the parking lot).

A&S event in Draca Mor – Mistress Signy

Signy is working with Zephyr for A&S classes. Event is scheduled for May 16-17. There will probably be 4-6 classes during the day, 1 at a time. Classes they would like to have included are leather work/dyeing, late period hats, etc.

Upcoming Events

Light Metal Mayhem - Doña Tatiana

Greetings Caer Galen! Scola Metallorum is once again hosting Light Metal Mayhem and I think the Rapier fighters within this fine Barony would have a lovely time at this event.

When: Saturday April 4th (yes, this is during the Easter weekend) from 9:30 to 4:00 PM
Where: Colorado School of Mines Student Center Ballrooms – Parking is Free on campus during the weekends.
Cost: The event is free, but donations to the club are always appreciated
Authorizations? This will run more like a practice therefore participants do not need to have Rapier Combat Authorizations.

How does it work? We kick it off with 3 sequential "Meanest" pits and the winner of each becomes a team captain. The captains pick his or her team. Then we dive into the melee scenarios. Each team gets 2 shots at a scenario. The team with the most victories wins. The captain of the winning team then gets the job of coming up with scenarios for next time. Prizes are usually given to Most Chivalrous and best Newbie.

If you have any questions, please reach out to me.
